

URECA Programs Overview

URECA Programs Application:

Wake Forest Arts & Humanities Research Fellowship (5 weeks)

Application Deadline: March 20, 2024.

To see a list of all the questions prior to filling out the application, please click here.

This application will collect some basic information about you and a description of your project. It is expected that you will discuss your project with your faculty mentor(s) and that they will provide guidance on the application.

Your project should be an in-person, on-campus experience. You will be asked to submit a project description in PDF form that includes the following:

1. Justification for your scholarly project (including Project Background, Rationale and Significance; 500 words maximum).*
2. A detailed description of your Project Methods (500 words maximum).*
3. A description of how this fellowship will benefit your educational and/or career plan (250 words maximum).*
4. Up to 8 relevant literature citations.

You'll also be asked to submit a PDF with an itemized budget request (up to $500) if you would like funding for supplies or equipment.

Reminder: The Wake Forest Arts & Humanities Research Fellowship requires that students work full-time on their projects. That is to say, students receiving this fellowship may not work outside the fellowship nor enroll in summer courses during the 5 consecutive weeks of the summer fellowship. Summer project dates should coincide with one of the two summer sessions. Summer session 1 is May 29 - July 3 and summer session 2 is July 9 - Aug 10. All equipment purchased for research must remain with the mentor as the department or lab's property, used as a resource for future research and/or study.

*Do not exceed the word limit for each section. Due to the number of submissions we receive, the committee can prioritize only those applications that stay within the maximum word counts listed above.
